

TrueCommand

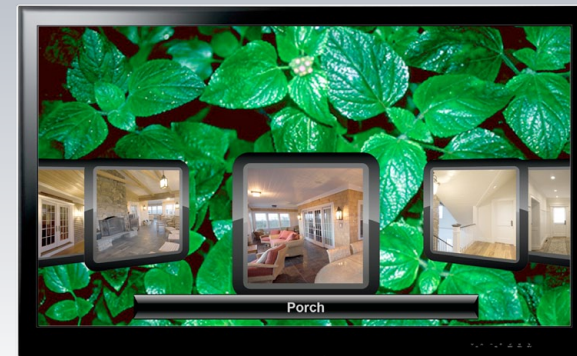

A Control Portal to all of the Technologies within Your Smart Home

Media

Savant's breakthrough TrueCommand technology provides the most advanced and visually engaging way to navigate, browse and select diverse home control services and multimedia content by boldly presenting attractive icons on any high definition TV. TrueCommand gives you total control from the comfort of your sofa without ever interrupting your audio or video programming.

Security Cameras

While watching your favorite movie, use a Savant app or remote to easily:

Adjust the temperature

Dim the lights

Check the security cameras

Search and play audio and video content

Obtain weather info and sports scores and more...

TrueCommand

A Technology like No Other

Savant's navigation portal is overlaid on live video, unlike competing on-TV menu control solutions that require users to interrupt what they are watching in order to access commands.
